Copyright agents are watching you!

Music Games Software Media Movies

Are you legal?

Downloading or distributing whole copies of copyrighted material for personal use or entertainment without explicit permission from the copyright owner is against the law.

If you illegally possess or share copyrighted materials you may:

Lose access to the IU network
Be referred to the Office of the Dean of Students for disciplinary action
Face legal action directly from the copyright owner

Protect yourself immediately!

Assume you do not have permission to download a file unless you have proof to the contrary

Use legal downloading services

http://filesharing.iu.edu/

Indiana University